REQUESTS AND CONSENTS

Medical Assistance

	Yes, I require assistance from Alora Retreat.		No, I will self-manage my medication.
--	---	--	---------------------------------------

By requesting assistance from Alora Retreat to assist me with my medication, I understand that:

- In accordance with Section 8 of the Residential Services (Accreditation) Regulation 2018, Alora Retreat will follow the recommended principals of the seven 'rights' for safe medication administration that have been developed within the healthcare sector and are widely used. They are:
 1. Right person
 2. Right medication
 3. Right dosage
 4. Right time
 5. Right route
 6. Right to refuse
 7. Right documentation
- This means assisting me to access appropriate non-prescription medication in accordance with the directions provided by the manufacturer.
- This means assisting me with alternate medications recommended by my medical practitioner and/or pharmacist.
- Alora Retreat is authorised to store such medication safely in a locked area within the facility.
- My prescriptions can be given to the pharmacist as required.
- If I am not present at the agreed time and location to receive assistance with medication, management/staff are authorised to make all reasonable efforts to locate me. Third parties Alora Retreat may contact include family, friends, government agencies and emergency services. If unfound, Alora Retreat may report to the appropriate people, clinics and/or medical practitioners immediately.
- Should I choose to take my medication back to my room to administer later, I do so at my own risk, and staff may notify my medical practitioner.
- Should I miss a dose for any unplanned reason, or if I refuse to take the prescribed medication, I do so at my own risk, and that staff can notify my medical practitioner.
- Should I experience any problems with swallowing, it is my responsibility to make staff aware of these issues.
- If I experience acute or persistent swallowing problems when taking my medication, or when eating or drinking, Alora Retreat may contact my GP or health professional for assessment.

During your stay with us, Alora Retreat may take photographs or video footage to use in promotions that may include, but not limited to, materials such as brochures, newsletters, websites, and social media. Do you give us permission to use photographs, image, and/or videos taken of you in such promotions?

	Yes		No

Authority to Share Information

Alora Retreat may need to collect and disclose information which is relevant to the support services provided. I understand that throughout the provision of these services, Alora Retreat may use this consent as authority to collect and disclose my information to relevant parties and agencies as required. Alora Retreat may disclose my personal information to:

- Alora Retreat related entities to facilitate internal business processes
- Commonwealth and State departments and agencies which provide funding for services (i.e. NDIS Auditing purposes, Office of Public Guardian, Public Trust, NDIA)
- Contractors and/or agencies who provide on behalf of Alora Retreat
- Your NDIS registered Support Coordinator and/or your Plan Manager
- Other NDIS service providers who offer supports (i.e., Centacare, Endeavour)
- Health and allied health professionals who provide specialist support to facilitate the delivery or support services (i.e., GP, physiotherapist, hospitals)
- Third parties including Queensland Police Service, to help with identification in the case of missing persons, and
- Emergency medical and ancillary staff in an emergency.

I understand that it is my right to choose if specific organisations are excluded from accessing or receiving information Alora Retreat holds about me. Therefore, by indicating in writing below, I DO NOT give authority to Alora Retreat to contact or disclose my information to the following:
